AFTER two games away from home we are obviously looking forward to making the most of home advantage against Bournemouth today and against Darlington on Tuesday evening.

A look at the League table shows that we need the points, especially after dropping points in our previous two home games. The results against Brentford and Swansea were very disappointing, but the signs were there against Bristol Rovers and Cardiff City that the players are going to work as hard as they can to get it right on the pitch.

I was disappointed at Eastville last week — not disappointed with the performance but with the result. I felt sorry for the players because they had worked very hard indeed for no reward.

I really thought we deserved a point for all the fighting spirit we showed.

So it was no surprise to me to see the players go out at Cardiff and show that same spirit. We got the win we wanted and needed and kept a clean sheet in the bargain — just as we had in our previous away win at Newport.

We defended sensibly and in the first half after we'd got into our stride we played some pretty attractive football. We knocked the ball around well and you could see the players' confidence rise.

After the interval we struggled to reproduce that same level of performance but Simon Farnworth only had one save to make and we were well worth the points in the end.

Keeping a clean sheet must be one of our priorities in every game but that will be put to the test this afternoon against Bournemouth who smashed six past Bristol Rovers last week. But looking through the mixed results they have had so far this season just emphasises my point that the Third Division is full on inconsistent teams.

In welcoming the Bournemouth team, supporters and directors I hope manager Harry Redknapp will forgive me for extending an extra special greeting to his physio John Kirk.

John has been with Bournemouth for years and years, looking after the players wherever they travel. But being a Farnworth lad and since something like 90 per cent of his relations live in this area I know he always considers games here at Burnden Park as something special.

It's always nice to see John — one of football's gentlemen — and I know that, whatever today's result, he'll still have a smile on his face at five o'clock.

AFC BOUR

ERRATIC BOURNEMOUTH PERPLEX THEIR FANS

by Tony Pullein

On their day, Bournemouth are probably the best team in the Third Division. The trouble is that no one can be sure when they are in the right mood and their erratic form this season has totally perplexed many of their fans.

After crashing 0-3 at Derby on the opening day, the Cherries went to Reading in the Milk Cup and won 3-1. They then thrashed Bristol City 5-0 before completing the double over Reading — the team that this season created a new Football League record by winning their opening 13 League games — by winning 2-0 at Dean Court.

Then, after crashing 1-4 at home to Blackpool and losing 0-3 at Wigan, Bournemouth took on League Champions Everton at Goodison Park in the Milk Cup and, after only 11 minutes, sprinted into a 2-0 lead!

They eventually lost the leg 2-3 but they played some good football against Everton again at Dean Court, in spite of losing 0-2.

In mid-October they were beaten at home by Gillingham (2-3) and at York (1-2) but, hey presto, they were back on song again last Saturday with an astonishing 6-1 victory over Bristol Rovers at Dean Court.

Though their up-and-down form is scarcely likely to see them participate in the promotion race, Bournemouth are certainly an entertaining team to watch. And, since they signed Colin Clarke from Tranmere during the summer to team up with Colin Russell in attack, they have been scoring a few goals.

Clarke scored twice against Bristol Rovers to take his total to 12. Russell was also on the mark twice last weekend and he now has nine goals to his credit.

The only other newcomer in the Bournemouth side this season is midfielder Mark Newson, who was signed from Gola League Maidstone United during the summer. He went straight into the side and has held his place.

Bournemouth have won two away League games so far and manager Harry Redknapp will be looking for at least a point from today's trip to Burnden Park. Those victories were achieved at Chesterfield (1-0) and Cardiff (1-0). All their other away League matches ended in defeat — at Derby (0-3), Brentford (0-1), Wigan (0-3), Lincoln (2-3) and York (1-2).

AFC Bournemouth have spent their entire League career in the Third and Fourth Divisions. Founded as Boscombe F.C. in 1899, they changed their title to Bournemouth & Boscombe F.C. upon their election to the Third Division (South) in 1923. In 1971 they became known as AFC Bournemouth.

The Cherries created a Football League record by remaining in constant membership of the Third Division until 1970 when they were relegated to Division Four. Though they bounced back at the first attempt, they were relegated again in 1975 and didn't get back to Third Division level until 1982.

Apart from their occasional Cup giant-killing feats, the club's successes have been modest. Two seasons ago they won their first major trophy when defeating Hull City in the final of the Associate Members Cup.

In 1957 they enjoyed a club record run to the sixth round of the F.A. Cup, ousting First Division Wolves and Tottenham on the way. Two seasons ago they created a sensation by beating F.A. Cup holders Manchester United 2-0 in the third round.

But a place in the Second Division has been their long-standing ambition. They could still achieve that goal this season — providing they can bring some consistency into their play.

JOHN SMEULDERS (Goalkeeper). John is in his second spell with Bournemouth. He originally joined them from Orient in 1979 but left two years later to join Trowbridge. He returned to Dean Court two seasons ago.

TOM HEFFERNAN (Defender). Tom is also into his second period with the Cherries. After developing at Tottenham, without getting a first-team chance, he initially went to Dean Court in 1979. He held the right-back spot for four years and then moved on to Sheffield United. Bournemouth re-signed him this summer.

ROGER BROWN (Defender). Roger is yet another player in his second spell with the club. He originally joined them from AP Leamington in 1977 but moved on to Norwich for £95,000 two years later. Fulham paid £100,000 for him in 1980 and he remained in their senior team until returning to Dean Court two seasons ago.

MARK NIGHTINGALE (Defender). Mark won England youth honours during his first spell with Bournemouth. He was transferred to Crystal Palace in 1976 but didn't get into their League XI so, a year later, he moved on to Norwich. Mark re-joined Bournemouth during the 1982 close-season.

CHRIS SULLEY (Defender). Chris didn't come into first-team reckoning with Chelsea but got his League chance after signing for Bournemouth in March 1981.

MARK NEWSON (Midfield). Bournemouth signed Mark from Gola League Maidstone United in the summer and he made his League debut at Derby on the opening day of the season. He made a quick impression and has now established himself in the team.

SEAN O'DRISCOLL (Midfield). Sean joined Bournemouth from Fulham in February 1984. Fulham signed him from Alvechurch in 1979 and he played more than 150 first-team games for the Cottagers. Sean has been capped by the Republic of Ireland on three occasions.

GARY HOWLETT (Midfield). Gary had trials with Manchester United and Liverpool but it was Coventry City who gave him his chance when signing him from Home Park, the Dublin club, in 1980. He didn't make the first-team at Coventry so he moved on to Brighton and played for them in the 1983 F.A. Cup final. Bournemouth signed him last season.

JOHN BECK (Midfield). John initially joined AFC on loan from Fulham three seasons ago. His League career began with Q.P.R. in 1973 and he was transferred to Coventry for £40,000 in 1976. Two years later he joined Fulham in a £80,000 deal.

PAUL MORRELL (Midfield). Paul is a defensive midfield player who was signed from Weymouth in 1983. He kicked-off his League career two seasons ago as a full-back but then switched to midfield.

COLIN CLARKE (Forward). Colin was signed from Tranmere for £22,500 this summer and has proved an enormous success. He scored a hat-trick against Bristol City and his two goals in last week's 6-1 win over Bristol Rovers took his total for the season to 12. His form for AFC earned him a call to join the Northern Ireland national squad but he has not yet won his first cap. Colin began his career with Ipswich but didn't get into the first-team. Peterborough blooded him in League football in 1981 and in 1983/84 he spent a loan period with Gillingham. Tranmere signed him in 1984 and he scored 26 goals for them last season.

COLIN RUSSELL (Forward). Colin was signed from Huddersfield in 1984. He started his career with Liverpool but got only one run in their First Division side. After moving on to Huddersfield in 1982, he scored 17 goals in his first season. He ended 1983/84 on loan to Stoke City. Two goals against Bristol Rovers last weekend took his total for the season to nine.

IAN THOMPSON (Forward). Ian was joint top-scorer with 15 goals in 1983/84 and hit 13 last term. But he has been out with an injury for several weeks this season. Ian had been expecting to join Manchester City but then John Benson, who had lined up the deal, was sacked. Ian, who earned a reputation as a goalscorer in the Southern League with Salisbury, joined AFC during the summer of 1983.

CHRIS SHAW (Forward). Chris made his League debut in 1982/83 but had made only a few subsequent appearances prior to this season. An injury to Ian Thompson gave him the chance to win a regular place.

CLUB NEWS

IN RETROSPECT

We welcome Bournemouth to Burnden Park today for the ninth Football League meeting between the two clubs all of which have taken place at Third Division level.

Bolton's first home game in the Third Division, in August 1971, saw Bournemouth as the visitors, the result ending in a goalless draw, the only one between the sides to date. The following March, Bolton registered their only win at Dean Court to date, denting Bournemouth's promotion hopes with a 2-1 scoreline. Roger Hunt gave Bolton the lead after 17 minutes and as the game drew to a close it seemed as if that is the way it would stay. However, in the last two minutes the Wanderers cleared a Bournemouth effort from the line, increased their lead through Roger Hunt and conceded a soft goal when Ted MacDougall notched his 40th goal of the season with the final touch of the game.

Season 1972/73 saw both sides in contention for promotion with home victories resulting in each game. At Burnden a John Byrom double followed an own goal by Mel Machin to give the Wanderers a 3-0 win whilst Bournemouth won 2-0 at Dean Court with goals from Phil Boyer and Micky Cave.

Our paths didn't cross again until November 1983 when a 2-2 draw resulted at Dean Court. The Cherries went into the two goal half time lead thanks to a double from Trevor Morgan, his first coming after only two minutes. Jeff Chandler pulled a goal back two minutes after the re-start with a shot from the edge of the penalty area, his fourth goal in eight days. In the 59th minute Chandler had a hand in setting up the Wanderers' equaliser. It was his break that led to Ray Deakin crossing for Wayne Foster to flick onto Steve Thompson who shot smartly past Bournemouth 'keeper Ian Leigh. It was a goal to remember for Steve as it was his first goal in League Football. The Wanderers extended their record to one defeat in nine games with a spirited fightback but the return at Burnden the following April saw Bournemouth take the points with their only victory here to date.

By complete contrast to the earlier meeting that season, the result left the Wanderers with one win in eight games and the games attracted the lowest gate at Burnden for a League match of 3,045. The Wanderers' manager John McGovern included himself in the side for the last time but a goal after 81 minutes from Billy Rafferty separated the sides in a dull end-of-season game.

Last season each side won their respective home games. At Burnden Bournemouth took the lead after only 30 seconds, Colin Russell firing home. Ian Thompson missed an open goal in the 21st minute in a half that saw the Wanderers off form. The second period improved from Bolton's point of view when in the 58th minute Wayne Foster, playing only his second game of the season in place of the injured Tony Caldwell, headed home. It was a delightful goal conjured up by Brian Borrows on an overlap, his cross finding Foster, whose diving header evaded Smeulders.

Wayne Foster was again involved in Bolton's second goal which came from the penalty spot. Foster cut in from the by-line rounding one defender before being fouled by Paul Morrell. Wanderers' skipper Jeff Chandler stepped up to convert the kick, his fourth of the season, and earn Bolton a 2-1 victory. The two teams were:

Bolton: Farnworth, Borrows, Phillips, Joyce, Berry, Valentine, S. Thompson, Chandler, Oghani, Foster, Bell. Sub: Rudge.

Bournemouth: Smeulders, Nightingale, Sulley, Beek, Brown, Savage, O'Driscoll, Russell, Rafferty, I. Thompson, Morrell. Sub: Schiavi.

At Dean Court the Wanderers crashed 4-0 and to their 15th away defeat of the season. A Phil Brignull header gave Bournemouth the lead after 15 minutes which was followed up two minutes later by an Ian Thompson goal. Billy Rafferty netted their third and Sean O'Driscoll completed the scoring in the 70th minute. The Wanderers' best chance saw Ian Bailey in his first full game of this 'trial period' strike the bar with a looping cross.

Our record against Bournemouth is as follows:

	P	W	D	L	F	A
HOME	4	2	1	1	5	2
AWAY	4	1	1	2	4	9
	8	3	2	3	9	11

IN RESERVE

16th October 1985

York City Reserves 1 Bolton Wanderers 2

The Wanderers reserves climbed into the top four of the Central League with a workmanlike performance at Bootham Crescent against a strong York side.

It took only five minutes for Bolton to take the lead with a well worked goal. Jimmy Phillips started the move with a cross-field ball to George Shepherd. He played the ball down the right wing to Roger Walker who outpaced two defenders before unleashing a curling shot from two yards that struck the post. The rebound fell to Tony Caldwell whose diving header found the net.

City clawed their way back into the game and equalised in the 37th minute when Marco Gabbiadini headed home from a flicked-on corner.

Wanderers 'keeper Glen Campbell was kept busy and did well early in the second half to thwart City's Simon Mills when he raced clear of the Wanderers' defence.

In the 62nd minute Jimmy Phillips saw a 20-yard effort from a free kick strike the foot of the post but unfortunately the rebound bounced clear. Daryl McCarty was inches wide with a 30-yard shot but it was his more experienced striking partner who scored what turned out to be the winning goal in the 80th minute. Tony Caldwell capitalised on a mistake by City's centre half Michael King 35 yards from goal, he raced goalwards before coolly slotting past the advancing York 'keeper and it appeared that Caldwell's goal sniffing ability had returned.

In the closing stages Julian Darby put Roger Walker away to outpace the York defence he pulled the ball back for Simon Rudge whose shot from 25 yards was only inches wide.

Team: Campbell, Shepherd, Whitlow, Darby, Goulding, Phillips, Walker, Caldwell, McCarty, Rudge, Roberts. Sub: Allen.

Down memory lane

15 years ago 24th October 1970. An unchanged Bolton side faced Bristol City at Burnden with both clubs looking for points to keep clear of the relegation zone. Unfortunately it was a dull defensive game which looked like ending in stalemate until the 85th minute when Gareth Williams grabbed the winning goal for the Wanderers. Syd Farrimond provided the cross for Paul Fletcher to nod down to Williams who had the simple task of knocking the ball over the line.

During the following week John Byrom turned down a move to Norwich City after a fee of £30,000 had been agreed between the two clubs.

31st October 1970. The Wanderers visited League leaders Leicester City looking for revenge after being knocked out of the League Cup there two weeks previous. The result ended exactly the same, a 1-0 win for City, but the winning goal was a complete fluke. In the 26th minute City's Bobby Kellard, near the centre circle, sent a spectacular shot goalwards. Wanderers' keeper Alan Boswell moved forward to collect the ball but as he did so slipped, and finished up with a red face, helpless as the ball trickled over the line much to the 24,485 crowd's amusement.

10 years ago 25th October 1975. John Byrom returned to the side for the visit to Hull and he wasted no time in getting himself onto the scoresheet, heading home a Peter Thompson cross after only eight minutes.

Hull hit back and levelled after 26 minutes when Malcolm Lord's shot was deflected off a wall of defenders and into the net. On the stroke of half time Ken Wagstaffe put them in front with a spectacular 35-yard drive that left Barry Siddall helpless.

The Wanderers managed to extend their unbeaten run to 11 games when in the 78th minute Garry Jones popped up to rifle home an equaliser and leave a 2-2 scoreline. Seven players found their way into the referee's notebook in a full blooded encounter that was good value for the 7,369 crowd.

1st November 1975. Bolton's biggest crowd of the season to date, 17,274, came to Burnden for the derby clash with Blackpool. The Seasiders were out to spoil the party and had much the better of the first half, the Wanderers being lucky to go in at half time with the scoresheet blank.

The second half told a different story and after 75 minutes John Ritson grabbed what proved to be the winning goal with a rocket free kick from the edge of the penalty area.

Several times after, Pool 'keeper, George Wood, had to make outstanding saves notably from Garry Jones.

5 years ago 25th October 1980. An unchanged Bolton visited high-flying West Ham United and were unlucky to return home with a 2-1 defeat.

Tragedy struck in the 38th minute when Mike Walsh headed into his own goal after the Wanderers had been under no pressure. Thirty seconds into the second half United got their second, Geoff Pike shooting home. Brian Kidd gave Bolton hopes of a point with a goal in the 82nd minute but the London Jinx was extended to seven defeats in the last seven visits.

1st November 1980. Cambridge United were thrashed 6-1 at Burnden with Brian Kidd grabbing his second hat-trick of the season. Neil Whatmore, Len Cantello and substitute David Hoggan, with his first for the club, were the other scorers. Alan Taylor scoring for United in what was Bolton's best victory of the season.

JUNIOR WHITES NEWS

Today's mascot is David Parkinson of Daisy Street, Bolton. David is 14-years-old and attends Deane Base Secondary School. His favourite players are Asa Hartford and Simon Farnworth.

Don't forget that the next Junior Whites meeting will take place this coming Monday, 4th November, commencing at 6.30 p.m. in the Executive Suite.

FANS' TREAT

Notts County have extended a special invitation to Wanderers Junior Whites to take a group of their members to the game at Meadow Lane on 9th November.

The young fans will get a trip round Sherwood Forest, lunch and admission to the game for the inclusive price of £4.00.

Seats on the coach leaving Burnden Park at 9.00 a.m. will be allocated on a first come first served basis and anyone interested (a small number of parents included) should contact the Burnden Park reception (Tel. 389200) as soon as possible.

ONE HUNDRED GAMES

Today sees the Wanderers playing their 100th Third Division game at Burnden Park. Strangely enough Bournemouth were the first Third Division visitors to Burnden back in August 1971.

The previous 99 games have ended with 56 victories for the Wanderers, 24 draws, 19 defeats, scoring 155 goals and conceding 72.

BURNDEN SLIMMING CLUB

Congratulations to Len Kershaw of Radcliffe, who has reached and maintained his target weight, having lost 7st 3lb.

Also Barry White, who has lost a further 21lb in two weeks. he will soon reach his 10st loss — and still going strong.

GRAHAM BELL SAYS THE THIRD DIVISION IS STILL WIDE OPEN

READING may be a cool 14 points clear at the top of the Third Division but the general view is that the 23 clubs below them still have everything to play for.

After last weekend's games only 10 points separated 19 clubs immediately below Reading who had lost at Bury and one man who believes that 10 point gap can be bridged by any club that can string together anything like a respectable run is Graham Bell.

He scored his first League goal of the season in our win at Cardiff City last Saturday and later gave his assessment of the Third Division as he sees it:

"Reading included, I really haven't seen anything out of the ordinary in the Third Division so far," Graham says.

"We've been struggling to get it right but even now there's only 10 points between us and second place. Three wins and you can tag yourself onto the leading pack and a decent run of six matches or so and you can count yourself well in there.

"No team has really impressed me so far and from our point of view all we need is a win or two under our belts and we'll grow in confidence. That, and a bit of a better run clear of injuries and I reckon we can start to make an impression.

"It's not cut and dried by any means at the moment. Get to Christmas and I think things will probably begin to sort themselves out.

"And if we can have a few more results like that one at Cardiff last week we can be in there fighting with the rest.

"A win away from home always does you good and keeping a clean sheet is a real boost for your confidence. Cardiff weren't the best of teams, I'll admit that, but they've got to be beaten and they tried to hit us in the second half.

"But we defended sensibly and that pleased me. Charlie and Walter are right in what they say, we've got to concentrate on getting it right at the back so that we can go to places like Cardiff and give ourselves a chance of getting a point or three. There is always time to turn it on in attack when you're at home and have established a good defensive base."

That goal at Ninian Park brought the now familiar chants of "ZICO" from the travelling Wanderers fans — a nickname for Graham Bell that has spread on the terraces this season.

Down to earth as usual, Graham sees the funny side and admits: "I think it's a bit tongue in cheek — but I don't mind really. I've been called worse things than that in the past.

"And if I can pop in a few goals in the Zico fashion then I'll be delighted.

"That's one of the plus points of playing in this position wide on the left. It's not my favourite position.

"But it gives me licence to go forward which is what I always like to do in midfield. I felt a bit restricted last season when I was asked to do a holding job in midfield and let the other lads push forward.

"I don't blame John McGovern for asking me to play that way. It was the sort of job he's always done in his playing days and I think he saw me as someone who could do the same. But I like to get forward and to be honest it didn't really suit me.

"Nevertheless I'm happy to play anywhere and as things have turned out I'm feeling a lot happier now.

"This club is screaming out for better results and as confidence grows I'm sure they'll start to come. Crowds are averaging around 4,000 and 5,000 and I think with any level of success we can pull 10,000.

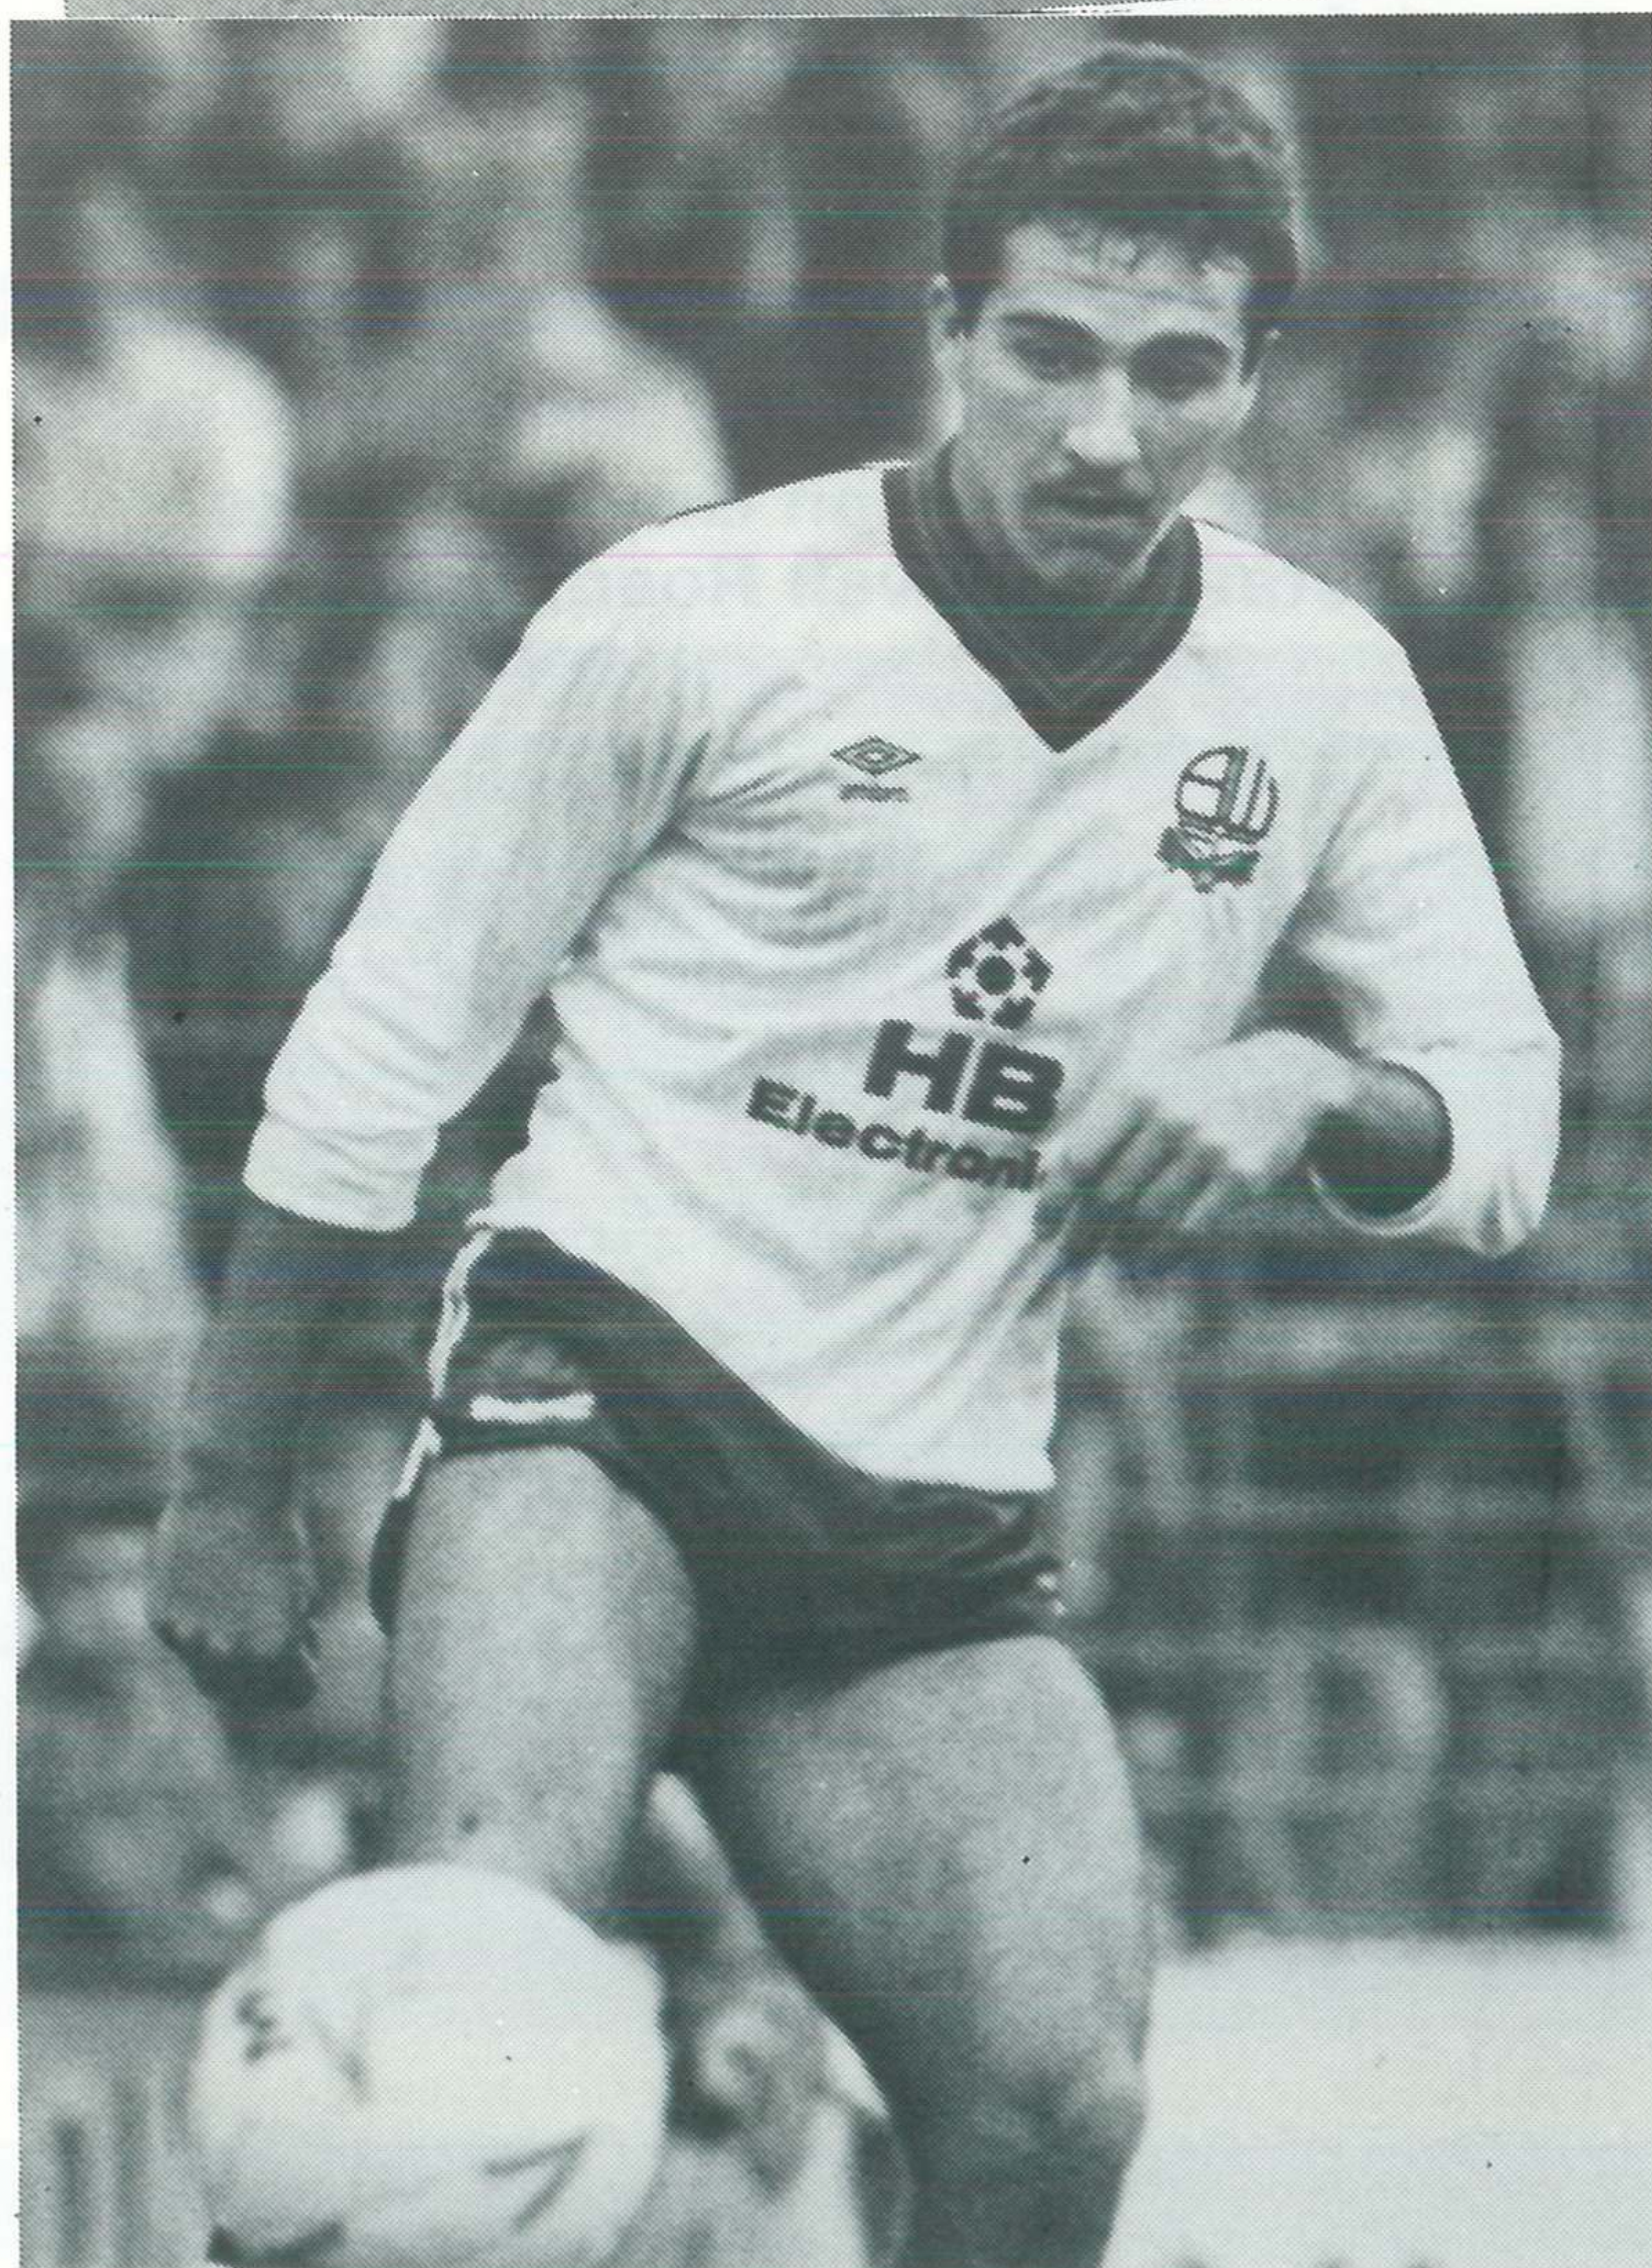

"Looking around this place I reckon there's nowhere better to handle success if we can achieve it."
